A Wonderful Day!

enjoyed it. One of the event's highlight was a special guest appearance from Coco, the baby tortoise, who everyone fell in love with!

were also greatly appreciated.

their time to help and the local businesses who donated vouchers for our raffles

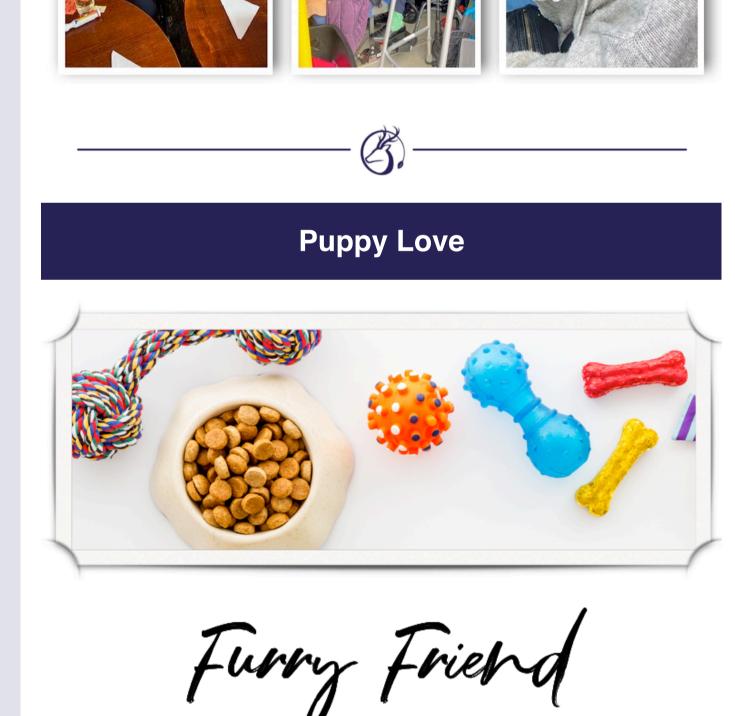

We recently took a trip to the local club for bingo and stopped on the way home for an ice cream. It was a fun outing and everyone had a great time. We love taking our residents on trips to explore the local area, connecting with the community and enjoying experiences together.

Kobi, Christine's new little puppy, stole everyone's hearts when she came to visit the residents. Kobi is just 8 weeks old and was the highlight of our day. We love residents.

having pets visit us at Springvale, as they bring so much joy and happiness to our

Fun & Games

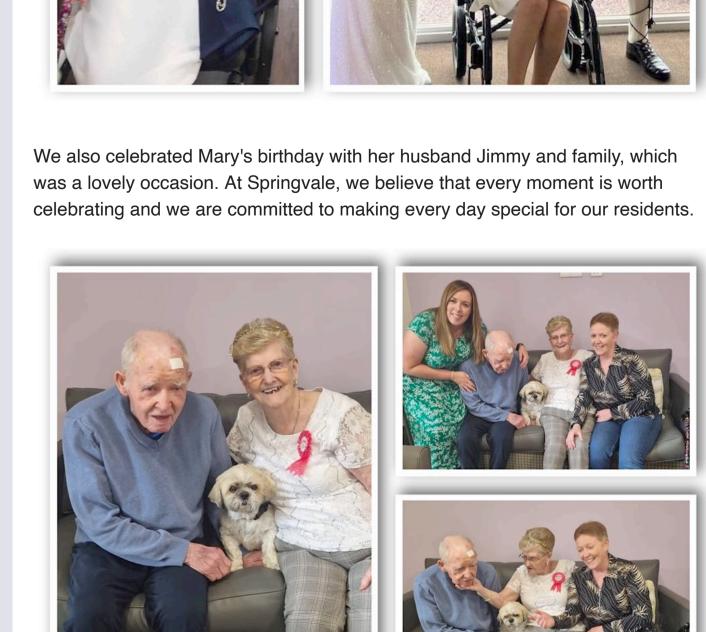

focuses on their goals and how to achieve them. That's why we were thrilled to support Cathie to attend her daughter's wedding. One of our amazing care staff volunteered on her day off to accompany her and our activities staff supported with the long drive to the venue.
